REMARKS:

Anything written in the contract cannot restrict or diminish the intent of the consumer rights. Any existing conditions must be disclosed on the Standard Form (Information Statement for Purchaser of Dog or Cat). All health conditions were disclosed to the consumer on the health certificate and the contract. However, they also need to be on the Standard Form, One health certificate was completed listing all dogs in the litter. A complete unique description of the dog needs to be on the Standard Form which matches the Health Certificate. For example, the dogs were identified by the collar color on the Health Certificate, The collar color then needs to be in the description on the Standard Form. By doing so, the Standard Form has a unique description that clearly determines which dog it is on the Health Certificate. Or, one health certificate per dog with a complete description that matches the Standard Form is acceptable.
