REMARKS:

According to Article 26A, Section 401. Minimum standards of animal care: Pet dealers shall comply with the following minimum standards of care for every animal in their custody or possession. 1. Housing. (a) Animals shall be housed in primary enclosures or cages, which shall be constructed so as to be structurally sound. Such enclosures shall be maintained in good repair to contain the animal housed inside and protect it from injury. Surfaces shall have an impervious surface so as not to permit the absorption of fluids and which can be thoroughly and repeatedly cleaned and disinfected without retaining odors.

According to Article 26A, Section 401.2. Sanitation: Housing facilities, including primary enclosures and cages, shall be kept in a clean condition in order to maintain a healthy environment for the animal. This shall include removing and destroying any agents injurious to the health of the animal and periodic cleanings. The primary enclosure or cage shall be constructed so as to eliminate excess water, excretions, and waste material. Wastes must be removed on a daily basis and disinfection must occur no less than every two weeks.

According to Article 26A, Section 402. Records of purchase and sale:
Each pet dealer shall keep and maintain records for each animal purchased, acquired, held, sold, or otherwise disposed of. Records for each animal shall be maintained for a period of two years from the date of sale or transfer, whichever occurs later. During normal business hours, the records shall be made available to persons authorized by law to enforce the provisions of this article.

According to Article 35D, Section 753-b. Information statement for purchaser:
Every pet dealer shall deliver to the purchaser of an animal, at the time of sale, a written statement in a standardized form prescribed by the commissioner of Agriculture and Markets.

According to Article 7, Section 109.1(a): The owner of any dog reaching the age of four months shall immediately make application for a dog license.
