REMARKS:

Dogs that are seized by the DCO at large and unidentified are required to be licensed before release regardless of age. This includes puppies under sixteen weeks of age. If under twelve weeks of age, clerk notes on license 'to young for rabies'.

Impoundment fees must be collected before dogs are released, they cannot be waived for any reason. If the municipality has not set an impoundment fee in local law then refer to Article 7, sec 117(4) which states 'not less than $10 on the first impoundment'.
