As it is the beginning of a new year, multiple municipalities are still in the process of approving/renewing 2021 shelter services contracts. Several municipalities also still have no shelter services available for certain dangerous dogs.

As of this date, the Towns of Chesterfield, Moriah and Westport are in compliance with shelter services available for all seized dogs.

As of this date, the Towns of Crown Point, Elizabethtown, Essex, Jay, Keene, Lwis, Newcomb, North Hudson, Ticonderoga, Willsboro and Wilmington are out-of-compliance either because they have yet to renew their usual contracts and/or because they have failed to address their lack of shelter services for certain dangerous dogs.

REMARKS:

No Physical Inspection was carried out.
Renovations to retrofit two kennels in the DCO dog housing area with guillotine side-to-side transfer doors to enable safer handling of dangerous dogs had stalled due to COVID manufacturing/delivery delays. The Shelter Director reported to the inspector that all necessary parts have now been delivered to the shelter and they are currently working on scheduling the remaining work with their contractor.
