REMARKS:

I met with Deb Matthews today to discuss the present condition of the kennel. The town did ask for some more time to work on the drain and the ventilation. However, none of these issues has been addressed by the town yet. The timeline that was given to us with regard to correcting the deficiencies has not been followed.

All of the paperwork is in perfect order. The shelter is bringing in $100-$300 per month in fees assessed to the owner of those dogs that are redeemed. Tickets are also given for various violations and fines are collected. Perhaps consideration can be given to saving up these monies to be used towards the repair of the current shelter.
