

INDUSTRIAL EXHIBIT AUTHORITY

Contract Termination

In addition to, and not in lieu of any other provision of this Contract providing for, or permitting, termination of the Contract by the New York State Fair and/or the Industrial Exhibit Authority, this Contract may be terminated by the New York State Fair and/or the Industrial Exhibit Authority if:

- a. any of the vendor/contractor responses to the Vendor Responsibility Questionnaire are found to be intentionally false or intentionally incomplete;
- b. the vendor/contractor certification with respect to “not responsible” determinations within the last four (4) years based on impermissible contacts or the intentional provision of false or incomplete information to a government entity (State Finance Law §§139-j; 139-k) is found to be intentionally false or intentionally incomplete;
- c. the vendor/contractor affirmation with respect to the procedures relating to permissible contacts during the procurement is found to be intentionally false;
- d. the vendor/contractor representations with respect to Executive Order 127 are found to be intentionally false or intentionally incomplete;
- e. the vendor/contractor responses and representations with respect to Tax Law §5-a are found to be intentionally false or intentionally incomplete.

Upon such funding, the New York State Fair and the Industrial Exhibit Authority may exercise this termination right by providing written notification to the vendor/contractor in accordance with the terms of the contract or, if there is no written notification provision in the contract, by mailing written notice to the vendor/contractor at the vendor’s/contractor’s business address set forth in the contract.
